SPECIES OF INSEMPRENS, OF

GERMANY.

We publish this morning, to the exclusive use of our most confidential matter, the news of the trials, and especially the trials of the Southern, before our Georgia legislators at Millen, Georgia, on the 16th inst.

It is well known that Mr. Stephens has always stood high in the estimation of men of all parties, and his influence has been of great value to us.

He has, however, suffered a loss of physical and mental integrity.

Though reduced by physical disability, he has been a valuable factor in the legislative work of the Southern states.

His speeches have been excellent, and his influence has been great.

A. C. STEPHENS.
